Taylor Curtis, a Managing Director at MHT Partners, has been named Head of Business Development and will lead MHT's business development and lead generation efforts.

Taylor states, "I am incredibly excited to be opening a new chapter in my career, and I very much look forward to doing what I can to help guide MHT's future success by building on what our practice leaders have established and augmenting our capabilities through a dedicated effort."

Shawn D. Terry, Co-founder and Managing Director, adds, "Speaking for our founders, we are grateful that Taylor has accepted our offer to lead MHT's business development efforts. Taylor brings a unique skill set as an experienced and accomplished M&A banker, entrepreneur and mentor for our team as well as our clients. We all look forward to his continued contributions in organizing our outreach to potential clients in a strategic and effective manner."
